

EP2

UV END POSITION INDICATION

Manually operated fire dampers have an additional option – end position switches which allow to send feedback about blade position to fire control panel. For each position of the blade (OPEN/CLOSE) one end switch is needed. It is recommended to order factory-fitted end position switches together with manually operated dampers.

EP2 – for fire dampers with low torque actuating mechanism (for round dampers and rectangular dampers).

Product	Code
End Position indication EP2	1028383