

PLOK

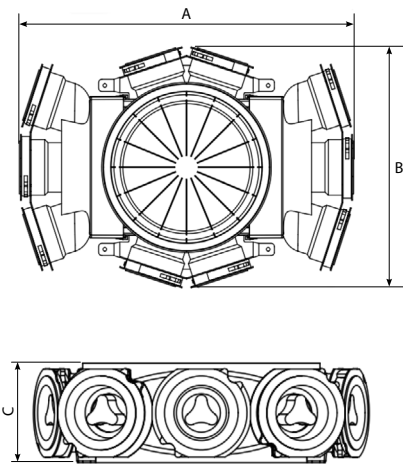

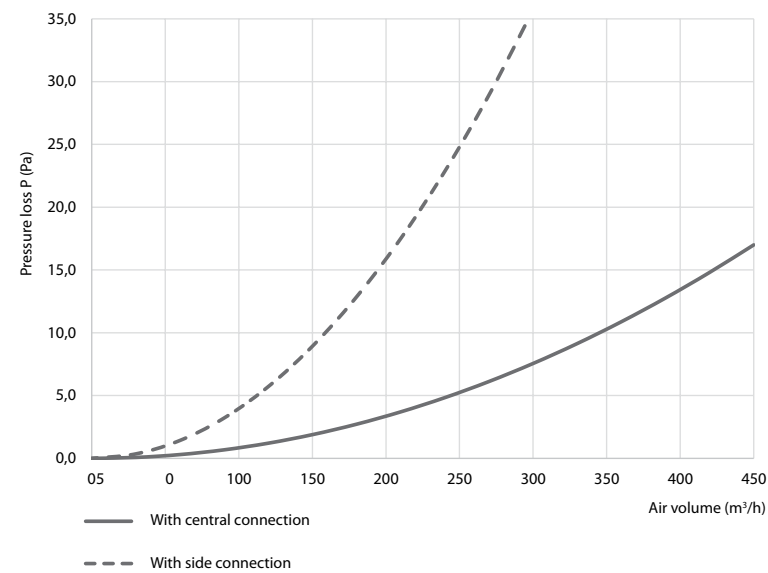

Air distribution boxes

Distribution box is responsible for the supply of fresh air to or the extraction of dirty air from different rooms in a building.

The system components are made of extremely light yet durable plastic material ensuring reliable operation for years, without the risk of mechanical damage or corrosion. More importantly the construction material used (PP – polypropylene) is considered safe as it poses no health hazard and is 100% recyclable.

Pressure loss dependence on air

Model	Dimensions, mm					Code
	D	d	A	B	C
PLOK 75×10	125/160/200	75	498	300	106	1156981